The following are some useful hints to help make the registration process go fast and smooth:

- Only Community Reps can attend registration
- Have team roster in alphabetical order.
- Have all passes in order to correlate with your roster.
- Have all players' memberships forms in order to correlate with your roster. Also make sure you are using the revised player membership form.

- Make sure you have a copy of new players birth certificate.
- Make sure you have the required number of copies.
- Make sure you have a copy of report card for those players that are 14years of age and going into the eighth grade. Only 4 allowed on team.
- Make sure player/coach passes are signed and pictures are glued on.
- Make sure the risk management confirmation letter is attached to the copy of your coach's registration form.
- Make sure you have your player/coach registration fees of $17.00 per. (Checks made payable to YAYSL)

Other questions that come up quite often.

Can I add players after the registration date? Yes, up to 3 as long as you don't go over the roster limit for your age division. You must submit an updated roster with all other pertinent forms, passes, and fees and update the on-line registration.

Who assign's a referee for my community? The community rep must use a licensed referee assignor. A list of these individuals are on the YAYSL website.

Can a coach be red carded? A coach can be thrown out of the game by a referee if the coach is displaying unsportsmanlike behavior.

Who calls in the score after a game? A coach from each team, whether your team won, lost, or tied.

Does my team have to attend the State Bothwell Tournament? No.

Who can attend the YAYSL's Annual General Meeting? Anyone, including coaches, parents, and players. Only communities that have met the attendance requirements can vote on any changes to the Constitution, By-Laws, and Rules and Regulations at this meeting.
